

Lisa Lopez

“Devotion and willingness to give time and thought”, describes the teaching career of Lisa Lopez, Spanish teacher at Troy High School. This statement which was written by the Future Problem Solving Club co-president sums up student responses to Lisa’s ability to connect with students. Lisa has been teaching in Troy for ten years. She obtained her Bachelor’s and Master’s degrees from Wayne State University. Lisa is known for bringing the Spanish language to life as she demonstrates through community involvement, music and unique assignments for her students. Acting out the words so that students find it easier to remember the meanings, is a creative teaching method utilized in Lisa’s high school classes. Lisa has been described by parents as being thorough in her teaching of all students, and her availability and receptiveness to students is one of her most outstanding qualities. Under Lisa’s tutelage, the FPS Club has been past State Bowl winner. Her ability to inspire students toward great achievement is a great gift from a great teacher.

Lisa Lopez was the Troy School District High School Teacher finalist for Outstanding Teacher of the Year 2007.
